She earned her Master of Social Work from Virginia Commonwealth University.

Topics They Care About

Acute Behavioral Health

Her role as Director of Acute Services is centered on managing urgent mental health care and crisis response programs for a large community.

Crisis Intervention

Her background includes directing a psychiatric assessment center, giving her extensive, hands-on experience in managing immediate and severe mental health situations.

Public Mental Health

She works for a Community Services Board, focusing on delivering essential behavioral health services to residents of Fairfax County and the City of Falls Church.

Clinical Social Work

As a Licensed Clinical Social Worker (LCSW), her approach to care and administration is rooted in established clinical best practices and patient advocacy.

Healthcare Administration

[Predicted] Her director-level positions at both a major hospital system and a community board indicate a strong focus on program leadership and operational management.
