Insights For Selling To Chris

👉 During A Call Or A Meeting

DO's

- Showcase how you can impact results but also make sure that you share detailed information too
- Showcase your competitive superiority clearly when possible or address it at the minimum
- Help them see both - the 'big picture' impact and the ROI of the investment

DONT's

- Avoid too much small talk, just a few formal pleasantries should be fine
- Avoid self-deprecating references or general informality, it could decrease their trust in you
- Avoid making strong statements, instead invite them to agree with you by asking them questions

👉 When Cold Calling

Insights

Pattern Interrupt: Speaking in a slightly hesitant manner, and seeking their permission at the start through a negation can get you a chance.

Pace: Speak slightly fast, especially if you tend to be calm and confident. Sound like a 'knows their domain' person.

Tone: Keep your tone slightly apprehensive, as if you are a little unsure about calling them.

Tactics To Win: Use of negations, giving full information

Mistakes To Avoid: Use of superlatives, overusing social proof

Making The Ask: Use negations, it is extra effective with them. It gives them a chance to say no, they like doing that.

Subconscious Driver: They believe they know a lot, so it needs to make sense as well as make them curious. They need to think that it is something worth investigation.

Script

Greeting: Hi Chris, this is [user_fname] at [user_companynamewordstwowords].

Opener: You probably don't want to be on this cold call, would it be a problem if I asked for 30 seconds of your time?

Introduction: My company has leveraged 30+ years of research to build an AI that can predict anyone's personality, behavior and decision-making style before you even spend a minute with them.

Ask: Companies like [abc], [xyz] have been able to move [KPI1] by X% and [KPI2] by Y%. Would it be too much to put 15 minutes on your calendar to share why this could be high ROI for you?

Close: Can I suggest [time1] on [date1]? Or would you prefer any other slots? And [prospect_email] would be the right email ID for you?
