Insights For Selling To David

👉 During A Call Or A Meeting

DO's

- During followups, use phone or text if needed, they should be fine
- Stick to your standard pitch and qualifying script, don't try to wing it
- Focus on the results that your product produces, expect some strategic questions in return

DONT's

- Don't shy away from asking hard questions, but be extra polite
- Don't get into pricing discussions early on, steer conversation towards proven results
- Don't take their patience for granted, avoid long-winding sermons

👉 When Cold Calling

Insights

Pattern Interrupt: A polite and formal approach, that doesn't sound over-friendly or too aggressive makes it hard for them to say no to you.

Pace: Slow down a little bit, especially if you are fast usually. Sound like a 'calming break from the day' person.

Tone: Keep your tone calm and soothing, as if you are giving a stranger advice on a critical matter.

Tactics To Win: Use of social proof, FOMO, repeating their name

Mistakes To Avoid: Strong words, over-confidence, informal language

Making The Ask: Formally, respectfully request their time. They find it quite hard to say no (Compared to Dominant or Calculative types for eg)

Subconscious Driver: They are change-averse by default. Hence a FOMO laden pitch can jolt them into action.

Script

Greeting: Good morning/evening David, how are you? This is [user_fname] at [user_companynamewordstwowords].

Opener: You are of course busy, would it be ok for me to take 30 seconds of your time to explain why I have called today?

Introduction: My company has built an AI that predicts prospect's personality and behavior so that you can start building trust from the very first second that you meet them.

Ask: David, companies like [abc], [xyz] have found it to be invaluable and adopted it already, it would be ok perhaps to put 15 minutes on your calendar to share why this could be valuable for you.

Close: If you are a morning person, then how does Tues or Wed look at [time]? And your email ID is [prospect_email]?

👉 When Writing An Email

Subject: To the point, formal

Example: Personalized sales funnel', 'Sales conversion' etc.

Salutation: No

Example: Skip 'Hi', 'Hey' etc., use only the first name

Greeting: No

Example: Skip lines like 'I hope you are doing well'

Emojis/GIFs:

Bullet Points: Could use

Closing Line: Formally state your ask

Example: Something like 'If you are available tomorrow, shall we discuss this?'

Complimentary Close: None or standard

Example: Something simple like 'Thanks', 'Regards', or nothing at all.

Tone of Words: Confident with a formal touch

Overall Messaging: Focused on output

Length of Mail: Short

Example: Maximum upto 100-120 words

👉 While Negotiating & Closing

The secret to closing fast with David is

- Strong proof of impact and their conviction will matter the most, but they wouldn't want to act unilaterally either

Will you ever get a clear answer from David

- They will say no if they are not convinced but you will have to prompt them.

Insights For Deal Planning

How Fast (Or Slow) Will David Move?

- They will want to understand things well but can move fast once they have a clear picture.

Can David Take Some Risk Or Not?

- They have good risk tolerance but are likely to think it through once or twice.
