Insights For Selling To Matthew

👉 During A Call Or A Meeting

DO's

- Build a trustworthy relationship while keeping the product center-stage
- Use phrases like 'your decision will', 'you will impact' etc.
- Give them control of the sales process

DONT's

- Don't hesitate from asking them how they truly feel about your product
- Don't force involvement of other stakeholders unless it is critical
- Don't make any commitments that you might not be able to fulfill

👉 When Cold Calling

Insights

Pattern Interrupt: Confident style, with a mix of informality and formality gets their attention.

Pace: Speak slightly fast. Sound like a 'gets shit done' person.

Tone: Do not sound too eager, as if you have met a friend suddenly after a long time. Keep the tone calm but confident.

Tactics To Win: Strong words, focus on results, respectful confidence

Mistakes To Avoid: Apologizing, nervousness, information overload, social proof

Making The Ask: Confidently, ask for 10-15 minutes. Allude to the results and outcomes that are possible. They care about the ends more than the means.

Subconscious Driver: Results and outcomes are what matter to them. Any credible shot at getting results will appeal to them quickly.

Script

Greeting: Matthew, this is [user_fname] at [user_companynamewordstwowords].

Opener: In 30 seconds if I could share how 100% of your sellers could kick ass this year, can I go for it?

Introduction: We have built an AI that predicts exactly what would matter to your buyer before you even meet them.

Ask: Can I put 15 minutes on your calendar to show you how this changes outcomes for you?

Close: [time1] on [date1] sounds good? Or would you prefer [time2] on [date2]? And [prospect_email] works well?
