

PAULA ADAMS

President at Penmac
Springfield, Missouri, United States

Overview

Paula Adams is the President of Penmac Staffing, a company she joined in 1995, working her way up to her current role in 2006. An alumna of the University of Missouri, she oversees all corporate and branch operations, driving the company's success and expansion into new sectors like education staffing.

Deeply committed to her community, Paula is an active leader, serving on the boards of at least nine different organizations in southwest Missouri. Her involvement spans education, healthcare, and youth services, with roles at Ozarks Technical Community College, the Child Advocacy Center, and Kiwanis Club.

She leads the staffing company that her mother, Patti Penny, founded in 1988, continuing a family legacy centered on the motto "We place people first."

Topics They Care About

Workforce Development

As president of a major staffing firm, she has an expert view of the labor market and connects thousands of job seekers with employment opportunities annually.

Community Leadership

She demonstrates a deep commitment to service by sitting on the boards of nine local organizations, including the Child Advocacy Center and Jordan Valley Community Health Center.

Education & Employment

Serves as Vice Chair on the Board of Trustees for Ozarks Technical Community College and led Penmac's expansion into providing staffing for public schools.

Female Empowerment

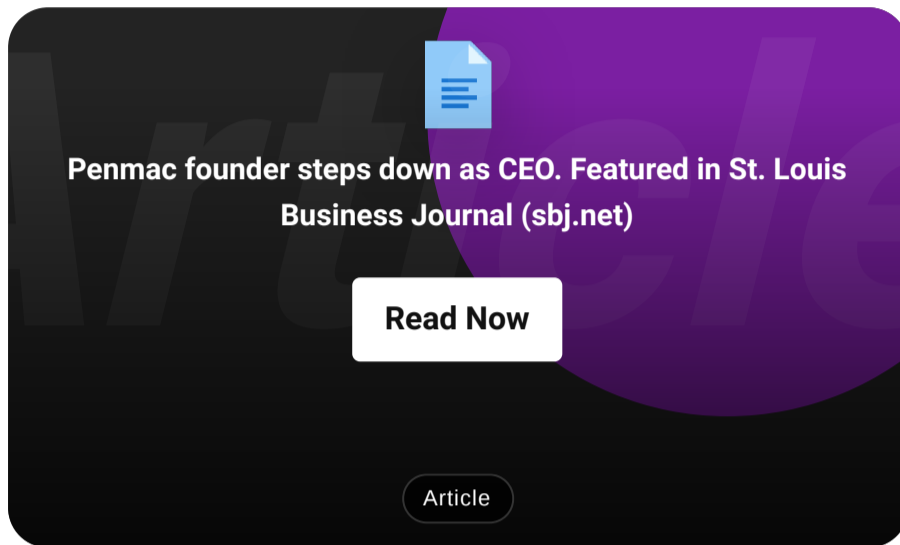

Her company supports charities that provide professional clothing to women entering the workforce and prioritizes promoting female employees into management roles.

Employee Ownership

Leads one of the largest employee-owned (ESOP) staffing companies in the country, a structure she believes contributes to its success and culture.
