Personality Overview

Full Of Energy

Believer

Relationship Oriented

They are not always early adopters but can be persuaded by leveraging strong relationships. They are really good at seeing what the long-term impacts of their decisions could be. Unlike C or D types, they are vocal with their opinions but not so much with their questions.

Insights For Selling To Stacey

👉 During A Call Or A Meeting

DO's

- Talk anecdotally about the customer experience that your product offers
- Use phrases like 'people will love', 'massive impact' etc.
- Share some stories about how you you have helped people in similar positions succeed

DONT's

- Don't be too formal, focus on building comfort and trust
- Don't assume a yes just because they have not said no
- Don't be excessively objective, be a storyteller

👉 When Cold Calling

Insights

Pattern Interrupt: Informal style, where you are talking in a friendly & casual manner, with a big smile on makes them want to speak to you.

Pace: Don't be too fast or too slow, stay in the middle. Sound like a 'brings happiness to others' person.

Tone: Speak with high energy and in a personal manner, as if you have met a friend suddenly after a long time.

Tactics To Win: Giving social proof, personal rapport, usage of superlatives, repeating their name.

Mistakes To Avoid: Information overload, use of negations

Making The Ask: Use positivity and/or humor to make the ask. It appeals to them, as if you are bringing a cheer to their day. (Avoid doing this with Dominant or Calculative types)

Subconscious Driver: They are driven by emotion more than any other type. Hence a proposition that excites them will immediately get their attention.

Script

Greeting: Hey Stacey, [user_fname] here at [user_companynamewithfirsttwowords] calling you this morning/evening!

Opener: Now I know how much people love cold calls, so how about 30 seconds to tell you what I have for you?

Introduction: We have built an AI that predicts exactly what will build a solid relationship with each prospect before you even spend a minute with them.

Ask: Stacey, leaders just like you at companies like [abc], [xyz] have been blown away with what they have seen, why don't we put 15 minutes on your calendar to show you if what I am saying is actually real, yeah?

Close: So morning at around [time] next [tuesday], shall we say? And is it [prospect_email]? Don't want to get that wrong you know!

👉 When Writing An Email

Subject: Personalized, catchy

Example: John, is this interesting?', 'Increasing sales conversion, together!' etc.

Salutation: Yes (Something casual)

Example: Use 'Hi', 'Hey' etc. (along with the first name)

Greeting: Yes (Say something interesting/unusual)

Example: Use unusual lines, like 'This has been quite a week', 'What a game yesterday' etc.

Emojis/GIFs:

Bullet Points: Avoid

Closing Line: Build excitement

Example: Something like 'So John, lets get the ball rolling?'

Complimentary Close: Unique, pleasant

Example: Something like 'Excited!', 'To a great partnership!' etc.

Tone of Words: Friendly, first-person

Overall Messaging: Focused on the person and relationship

Length of Mail: Long

Example: Maximum upto 150 words

👉 While Negotiating & Closing

The secret to closing fast with Stacey is

- Relationship and rapport can play an important role, sometimes more than the other factors.

Will you ever get a clear answer from Stacey

- They will probably never say no directly, you have to make that decision yourself.

Insights For Deal Planning

How Fast (Or Slow) Will Stacey Move?

- They are not the quickest decision makers, their friendly attitude could be misleading.

Can Stacey Take Some Risk Or Not?

- They can accept limited risks, ones that they think will not impact them personally.
