

TOM RAFFIN

Co-Founder and Senior Partner at Telegraph Hill Partners

San Francisco, California, United States

Overview

Tom Raffin is a Co-Founder and Senior Partner at Telegraph Hill Partners, where he leverages his deep medical expertise to guide venture capital and growth equity investments. A Stanford M. D. graduate, he specializes in sourcing and building companies in the life sciences and medical technology sectors before their sale to strategic partners.

His career is deeply rooted in academic medicine, serving as a Professor of Medicine, Emeritus at Stanford University, where he also completed his undergraduate and medical degrees. He contributes his expertise to the Gladstone Foundation, a non-profit biomedical research organization, by serving on its board of directors.

Unique fact: Before his career in venture capital, he was the Co-Director of the Intensive Care Unit at Stanford University Medical Center.

Topics They Care About

Life Sciences Investing

As a Co-Founder of a venture capital firm, his primary focus is on investing in and growing life sciences and medical technology companies.

Academic Medicine

Holds the title of Professor of Medicine, Emeritus (Active) at Stanford University, showing a long-term commitment to the academic medical community.

Critical Care

His clinical background includes serving as Co-Director of the Stanford University Medical Center ICU and Chief of Pulmonary and Critical Care Medicine.

Biomedical Research

He serves on the Board of Directors for the Gladstone Foundation, a prominent independent biomedical research organization.

Stanford Community

His entire higher education (A. B. and M. D.) and much of his medical and academic career have been centered around Stanford University.

Golden State Warriors

[Predicted] Based on his long-standing professional and academic presence in the San Francisco Bay Area.

San Francisco 49ers

[Predicted] Based on his firm's location in San Francisco and his long career in the Bay Area.

Media Appearances

Tom has no verified media appearances

Work History

- 9-2001
Co-Founder and Senior Partner at Telegraph Hill Partners

Education

- AB from Stanford University
- Education details unavailable from Medical Residency, Brigham & Women's, Harvard

More Information

Social Presence :

Prographics :

Exp : 24 Location : San Francisco, California, United States Job Level : Leadership

Designation : Co-Founder and Senior Partner at Telegraph Hill Partners